

Good afternoon,

With the Governor modifying the stay at home order and transitioning to Phase 1, veterinarians may resume normal services with the appropriate considerations given to staff, clients, and patients for their safety.

Best Regards,
North Carolina Veterinary Medical Board